Profile

Napa Valley College, founded in 1942 in Napa, held its first class with just 16 students, only one of whom was male. In 1982, Napa College changed its name to Napa Valley College. The official opening of a permanent Upper Valley Campus in 1994 brought educational opportunities closer to home for upper valley residents and added new dimensions to the college curriculum. Napa Valley College celebrated its 70th anniversary in 2012 and continues to serve students and the community in achieving educational, career, and personal goals.
